Description of the fire is unknown, but it seems to have caught in the basement, and by an elevator shaft being quickly communicated to the four floors above. Two attaches in the building had to flee for their lives when they discovered the building filling with smoke, so quickly did the blaze spread. The twenty-page press, soon to be supplemented by a thirty-two-page Hoe, is a wreck, and six Mergenthalers are hardly fit for more than the scrap heap. Two recently installed went down with the floor, while the other four are damaged by heat and water. The mailing filling lists, as well as the mailing galleys, of both papers were saved, while the books of the business office are thought to be safe in the iron vaults.

SMITH RELEASED ON BOND OF $1,000

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Raieigh, N. C., April 21.—Solicitor H.
E. Norris and Police Officer J. A.
Bailey returned to Raleigh to-day
from Alabama without their prisoner, Ector H. Smith, who is so much wanted by the North Ector H. Smith, who is so much wanted by the North Carolina corporation as president of the States Trust Company, of Wilmington, for alleged banking frauds in the manipulation of the banks of Angier, Macclesfield and Claremont, and in the promotion of the formation of banks in something like twenty other towns in this State. They let Smith out on $1,000 bond, with the final hearing in the habeas corpus case set for April 28. Solicitor Norris says Smith has retained six lawyers in Birmingham to fight extradition, the merest technicalities being raised that would not be considered for a moment, Mr. Norris says, in this State. The issue is that the affidavit and warrant of the Governor of Alabama, which certifies that it is issued on the affidavit and warrants from the Governor of North Carolina duly presented to the Gov-ernor of Alabama, is not accompanied by the actual warrant and affidavits from North Carolina to show due cortification. Demand was made that these papers be presented before the prisoner could be delivered, under a Supreme Court ruling peculiar to Ala-bama. These documents, retained in Montgomery by the Governor of Ala-bama in honoring the requisition, could not be gotten to Birmingham except through three or four days' delay, and Solicitor Norris was obliged to return immediately to North Carolina, and therefore, procured continuance of the case to April 28. He is very confident that if Smith does not skip his very small bond, he will have to be deliver-ed to the North Carolina authorities in the end. The Attorney-General of North Carolina had telegraphed to Smith and the Alabama authorities that if brought back to North Caro-lina not less than $15,000 bond would be acceptable, and yet he is released in Alabama on $1,000.

Nothing further has been heard from Vice-President W. O. Tarver, of the States Trust Company, nor has the State offered as yet any reward for his arrest. The preliminary hearings of Secretary-Treasurer C.H. Bowls April 22 in the police court here, but will likely be still further continued by consent until the extradition of Mr. Hardwicke and Mr. Caskie are members of the board of directors of the Branch Public Baths in this city.

Representative Lenroot, of Wisconsin, made a piez for the Payne bill, declaring the Progressive Republicans had "come more than half way" in their agreement to support it, and he believed the Republicans should unite on the measure. He pointed out that the Rules Committee in preparing the rule under which the Underwood bill will be considered, had tacitly agreed.
